RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On June 15, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered from a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) following an influenza (“flu”) vaccination administered on October 20, 2014. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On January 29, 2018, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent concluded that petitioner’s claim meets the criteria for a SIRVA, and that petitioner is entitled to a presumption of causation Id. at 6.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Respondent further agrees that, in light of the information contained in the record, entitlement to compensation is appropriate under the terms of the Vaccine Act. Id. at 6-7.

In view of respondent's position and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
