DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 8, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleged that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) after receiving an influenza vaccine on September 15, 2016. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On June 12, 2018, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for his SIRVA. On July 19, 2018, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $101,928.12, representing $100,000.00 for pain and suffering and $1,928.12 for past unreimbursable expenses. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $101,928.12, representing $100,000.00 for pain and suffering and $1,928.12 for past unreimbursable expenses, in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Michael Wallace. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
