RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

I. Compensation for Vaccine Injury-Related Items

On November 29, 2018, respondent filed a Rule 4(c) Report conceding that petitioner is entitled to vaccine compensation for his Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”) injury. The Chief Special Master’s Ruling on Entitlement, adopting respondent’s recommendation, was issued the same day, on November 29, 2018.

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $130,377.76. This is comprised of pain and suffering ($130,000.00) and unreimbursable out of pocket expenses ($377.76), and represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).¹ Petitioner agrees.

¹ Should Petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses and future pain and suffering.

II. Form of the Award

Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $130,377.76 in the form of a check payable to petitioner.²

Petitioner agrees.
