DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On May 8, 2018, Kimberly J. Little filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq., (the "Vaccine Act"). The Petition alleges that Ms. Little suffered Guillain-Barre Syndrome ("GBS") as a result of her October 15, 2015 influenza ("flu") vaccination. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On May 28, 2019, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for GBS. On May 22, 2019, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation indicating petitioner should be awarded $140,000.00 in compensation for actual pain and suffering damages and $7,253.93 in funds to satisfy a New York State Medicaid lien. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report and Proffer on Award of Compensation ("Proffer") at 3-4. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the Proffer, the undersigned awards the following:

- A. A lump sum payment of $140,000.00, representing compensation for pain and suffering, in the form of a check payable to petitioner as administrator of the estate of Kimberly J. Little. No payment shall be made until petitioner provides respondent with documentation establishing that she has been appointed as administrator of Kimberly J. Little's estate. If petitioner is not authorized by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as administrator of Kimberly J. Little's estate, any such payment shall be made to the party or parties appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as administrator of Kimberly J. Little's estate upon submission of written documentation of such appointment to the Secretary.
- B. A lump sum payment of $7,253.93, representing compensation for satisfaction of the New York State Medicaid lien, payable jointly to petitioner as administrator of Kimberly J. Little's estate and
