² On April 30, 2020, Ramona Jean Fry was substituted as Petitioner following the death of Ms. Briggs on January 26, 2020, of causes unrelated to her vaccination. ECF No. 48.

³ National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Administration as a result of a pneumococcal conjugate (Prevnar-13) vaccine administered to her on December 21, 2015. (Petition, ECF No. 1 at 1). On December 16, 2020, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner in the amount of $121,515.30. (ECF No. 82).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated February 25, 2021 (ECF No. 87), requesting a total award of $97,680.17 (representing $92,013.50 in fees and $5,666.67 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (ECF No. 87-5). Respondent reacted to the motion on March 10, 2021, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case and defers to the Court's discretion to determine the amount to be awarded. (ECF No. 88). Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $97,680.17 (representing $92,013.50 in fees and $5,666.67 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.
