RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

On April 15, 2020, Chief Special Master Corcoran issued Findings of Fact, finding that the onset of petitioner’s left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) occurred within 48 hours of vaccination. ECF No. 28 at 2, 7. On June 8, 2020, the Secretary of Health and Human Services (“respondent”) filed an Amended Vaccine Rule 4(c) Report advising that, in light of Chief Special Master Corcoran’s Findings of Fact ruling that the onset of petitioner’s left arm pain occurred within 48 hours of vaccination, and the medical evidence submitted in this case, respondent did not dispute that petitioner had satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Vaccine Act. ECF No. 30 at 2, 8-9. Thereafter, on June 10, 2020, Chief Special Master Corcoran entered a Ruling on Entitlement, finding petitioner, Susan Ann Kuhn, entitled to Vaccine Act compensation for her Table SIRVA injury. ECF No. 31.

I. Items of Compensation

A. Pain and Suffering

Respondent now proffers that, based on the Chief Special Master's entitlement decision and the evidence of record, Susan Ann Kuhn should be awarded $90,000.00 in actual and projected pain and suffering. This amount reflects that the award for projected pain and suffering has been reduced to net present value. See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioner agrees.

B. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Evidence supplied by petitioner documents Susan Ann Kuhn's expenditure of past unreimbursable expenses related to her vaccine-related injury. Respondent now proffers that, based on the Chief Special Master's entitlement decision and the evidence of record, petitioner should be awarded past unreimbursable expenses in the amount of $100.00, as provided under the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(1)(B). Petitioner agrees.¹

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to Susan Ann Kuhn should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following²: a lump sum payment of $90,100.00, representing compensation for pain and suffering ($90,000.00), and past unreimbursable expenses ($100.00), in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Susan Ann Kuhn.

¹ The parties have no objection to the amount of the proffered award of damages. Assuming the Chief Special Master issues a damages decision in conformity with this proffer, the parties waive their right to seek review of such damages decision. However, respondent reserves his right, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(e), to seek review of the Chief Special Master's June 10, 2020 entitlement decision.

² Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future medical expenses, future pain and suffering, and future lost wages.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment

Lump sum payable to petitioner, Susan Ann Kuhn: $90,100.00
