RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On July 31, 2020, Carl Carnes filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccination on September 21, 2019. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 2, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent states that Petitioner had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction of his left shoulder; Petitioner’s pain occurred within 48 hours after receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; Petitioner's pain was limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality has been identified to explain Petitioner's shoulder pain. Id. at 7. Respondent further agrees that no other causes for Petitioner's SIRVA were identified and the statutory six-month sequela requirement has been satisfied. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
